What is full-spectrum CBD oil?

Full-spectrum cannabidiol (CBD) oil is a hemp extract that contains cannabinoids, terpenes, and flavonoids from hemp plants. As opposed to pure CBD isolate, full-spectrum CBD oil contains a wide range of phytochemicals that work in concert to modulate the endocannabinoid system.

The advertisement features the Blue Gem Hemp logo at the top left, which consists of a stylized green leaf with a blue drop. Below the logo is a blue glass bottle of 'Kenai's Favorite' Full Spectrum Hemp Oil and a green box of the same product. The box is labeled '1200 mg' and '1 fl.oz (30ml)'. To the right of the products, a green banner reads 'OUR FLEXIBLE & HASSLE FREE MONTHLY Subscription SAVES 25% OFF'. Below this, it says 'Free Home Delivery' with a small icon of a delivery truck. At the bottom right, there is a black button with a green arrow and the text 'ORDER NOW', and the website 'www.bluegemhemp.com'.
