It also assesses the market dynamics, covering the key demand and price indicators, along with analysing the market based on the SWOT and Porter's Five Forces models.

Some Key Highlights from the Report

The on-premise segment accounted for the largest revenue share in 2021. On-premise solutions are becoming increasingly popular across a range of industry verticals. On-premise API Management is being adopted by many sectors to containerize managed gateways and host APIs and gateways in the same settings. In addition, on-premise models are highly sought after since they increase API traffic and meet compliance and security criteria.

The solution segment accounted for the largest revenue share in 2021. Many businesses are implementing API management to provide proactive, personalized experiences that help to logically connect data from shared sources. Solutions are created to integrate API management with business users, which speeds adoption, lowers overhead costs, and lightens the workload on the IT department.

IT and ITES accounted for the largest revenue share in 2021. API management for IT and ITES is developed for generating insights from data and automating various tasks. The shortage of trained technical manpower in the industry has led to a large number of IT and ITES organizations adopting API management.

Some major companies in the global Application Program Interface (API) management market report include:

Red Hat, Inc., IBM Corporation, Microsoft Corporation, Amazon Web Services, Inc., SAP America, Inc., Salesforce, Inc., ServiceNow, Inc., Postman, Inc., Boomi, LP., WSO2 LLC, Perforce Software, Inc., Tyk Technologies Ltd, Jitterbit, Inc. They have adopted various strategies, such as new product launches, mergers & acquisitions, expansions, partnerships, joint ventures, and others to strengthen their position in the market.
