

AgriLink Equipment Is Now a Fendt Dealer

BROWNLEE, SASKATCHEWAN, CANADA,
January 3, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ --

AgriLink Equipment is pleased to announce that they are now a Fendt dealer, giving them access to an extensive inventory of farm machinery and parts for their customers, along with their existing brands of farming equipment. Fendt is a leading manufacturer of agricultural equipment that meets a modern farmer's needs. The name is synonymous with quality, opportunity, and innovation, which are key drivers behind AgriLink Equipment's daily operations.

AgriLink Equipment aims to provide farmers with access to the best equipment in the industry and parts to complete the necessary repairs to keep the equipment functioning smoothly. The addition of the Fendt line of equipment and parts ensures their customers have access to various options to fulfill their farming needs and stay within their budgets. Fendt remains at the cutting edge of farming technology, providing farmers with durable, quality equipment that streamlines farming tasks and ensures increased productivity.

The Fendt products from AgriLink Equipment give farmers access to the latest farming technology and fantastic support from Fendt. The company implements new technologies into their farming equipment to keep farmers connected and improve how they use machines to grow robust crops. They are bringing farming into the future. Farmers can purchase the 500 Vario, 700 Vario, and 1100 Vario MT tractor series, the 900 RoGator, and the Ideal combines.

Fendt received the AE50 award in 2022 for the RoGator 900 self-propelled sprayer, the 300 Vario, and the TI Headland management system.

Anyone interested in learning about the Fendt equipment and parts available can find out more by visiting the AgriLink Equipment website or calling +1 (306) 759-2002.
