

Church of Scientology Hosts the Band Selected to Represent Mexico at the Rose Parade

A Storm drenched Southern California, but young musicians channeled their energy into a concert at the Church of Scientology Celebrity Centre in Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, January 5, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- When the 206 members of the Buhos (Owls) Marching Band from Veracruz, Mexico, were chosen to perform at the Rose Parade, it was a dream come true. So imagine their disappointment when the youngsters, age 11 to 15, were told the parade might be canceled due to rain.

But that's when Federation Veracruzana USA and the Church of Scientology Celebrity Centre stepped in, organizing an impromptu New Year's Eve dinner and concert at the Church in Hollywood.

It was a festive evening with great food and a lively concert performed by 30 of the band members. The band was awarded a certificate of congratulations from a U.S. Congressman and medals from Federation Veracruzana USA. Each band member also received a copy of
