

Global Dairy Products Beverages Market to Reach $32.5 billion by 2027 : IndustryARC

Speedy modernization, variety of flavors, and growing disposable income owing to economic prosperity are Anticipated to Boost Product Demand.

HYDERABAD, TELANGANA, INDIA, January 6, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- IndustryARC, in its latest report, predicts that Global Dairy Products Beverages Market size is estimated to reach $32.5 billion by 2027, growing at a CAGR of 5.5% during the forecast period 2022-2027. Dairy products beverages can be delineated as drinks fabricated from dairy products such as yogurt, milk, kefir, and others. Owing to their nutrient-rich nature they are consumed worldwide on a larger scale. Dairy-based beverages are home to essential nutrients like calcium, phosphorus, riboflavin, magnesium, vitamin B12, and polyunsaturated fatty acids (linoleic acid and oleic acid) that ensure overall body health by improving insulin sensitivity and reducing LDL cholesterol. Preparation of such beverages requires standard facilities and the utmost hygienic environment to prevent the growth of polychlorinated biphenyls whose contamination may set severe metabolic syndrome in motion. The global dairy products beverages market outlook is exceptionally enchanting considering the rising demand for flavored options. The health benefits associated with dairy beverages, augmenting purchasing power and health consciousness, dynamic modernization, state-of-the-art milking technologies, broadening retail chain network, and recent developments like mergers and acquisitions are factors set to drive the growth of the Global Dairy Products Beverages Market for the period 2022-2027.
