Over the years, Hezter Boi has enhanced his music skills and is committed to motivating people and bringing hope to their lives through his music. Hezter Boi "The Ox" wrote his first-ever song in 1995, the same year he started a gospel choir with his friend Mario Davis. Within a short time, he started his own singing telegram company called "Telegrams 4 U". Through this start-up, Hezter brought smiles to hundreds of faces and created magical moments that will last a lifetime.

Hezter says, "There's no place like home!" Music has always been my passion, and I shared my gift of singing in the Durham Community for decades in many different ways: churches, schools, businesses, organizations, and Singing Telegrams 4 you, LLC. My goal has always been to inspire and encourage people through my songs. This new HOMETOWN song, "BULL CITY ANTHEM", is all about our community unifying and singing a song that touches hearts in Durham so the world can see we stand together as a community, that we" LOVE OUR CITY, THE BULL CITY!"

Despite the setbacks and struggles, Hezter Boi never gave up on his dreams of inspiring people through music. He diligently contributes his gift to the community by motivating them to live better and more peaceful life. Through his experiences, Hezter Boi strives to advise people to never give up on their dreams and work hard towards achieving their goals.
