Haven will also provide on-site landscape lighting instruction for contractors and clients in the new headquarters' massive training room. The space is a pitch-perfect complement to the company's informative YouTube channel, Light Talk, where Sales Guy Rob Allison and Founder Chris McCoy share company updates and news and discuss Haven's advancing line of lighting products.

"We are thrilled to be launching our new headquarters," said Haven Lighting CEO, Chris McCoy. "This facility will allow us to take our smart outdoor lighting solutions to the next level, offering customers products that are both smart and beautiful." To help spearhead the new era of smart outdoor lighting, the company partnered with Carrera Construction, LLC, and building management firm Lee & Associates.

Haven Lighting's new headquarters will be located at 2691 Circleport Drive in Erlanger, KY and the showroom will be open to the public Monday through Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. and other times by appointment.
