This event is open to all Black women seeking a safe space to connect with other sisters and nurture their minds, bodies, and souls. All proceeds from this event will go towards donating books & supplies to schools in Black communities, investing in student's education and giving them the tools they need to succeed in a time when some districts are not treated fairly and all children should receive equal learning. Consequently, LA Sisterhood Circle was established, with revenues going to the provision of books and other educational materials to be utilized in Black communities' schools. Experience a range of methods to help nurture your mind, body and soul - all while surrounded by the loving support of other Black women. Tickets are available now, so take advantage of this powerful opportunity for change and growth!

Self-love and care are important but often neglected practices. The LA Sisterhood Circle was created to provide a safe and supportive space for Black women to connect and heal. They believe that self-care is essential to overall wellness, and they hope this event will help attendees reconnect with their inner strength and power. They are pleased to be able to give back to our community by donating to local schools, and They hope you will join Them in supporting this important cause.

ATTENDEE EXPERIENCE

"DIY Bath Salt Station where they can learn how to use herbs and aromatherapy and create their perfect blend."

"Floral Arrangement Booth where they can talk to an expert florist about the meanings of different flower colors and types to create a bouquet with a unique vibe."

"Inner Child Art Installation where they can commune with their inner child and add a meaningful addition to the installation."

The event will be live-streamed, and our online audience will have a chance to hear interviews from some of our practitioners about how they find healing. The day will wrap up with an award ceremony honoring community leaders in holistic wellness.

THEIR MISSION:

"To give Black women in LA exposure and access to a variety of holistic healing modalities, tools, and safe spaces to heal in the community while uplifting the young Black leaders of tomorrow."

They believe every woman deserves to feel loved and cared for, and this event is one step towards making that a reality.
