These programs will provide students with the opportunity to learn a variety of instruments and develop their musical skills in a supportive and enriching environment, all while immersing themselves in the French language and culture.

L'ecole de Denver is a French private school offering a bilingual program for Pre-K through Middle School students. The program blends the French and American systems' curriculum requirements and pedagogical approaches with native-speaking faculty creating rich academic environments for a diverse, international student body.

Students at L'ecole de Denver learn to speak, read, and write in French and English and are exposed to two cultures, allowing them to think, feel, and act from two perspectives. As a result, the school aims to develop "enlightened" students who are well-informed, well-rounded, responsible, and compassionate and can create and connect to a world filled with possibilities. The benefits of the bilingual program include agile minds, open hearts, and bright futures.

One of the classes offered as part of the after-school music program is a band class for middle school students. In this class, students will learn to master their instruments, play together as an ensemble, and develop stage presence. They will also have the opportunity to explore the technical aspects of recording, learn how to set up a recording studio, use recording software, and produce high-quality tracks. The final project for this class will be a live concert and recording of a studio-quality song.
