Less student to teacher ratio

88tuition offers live tutorials for a closed student's group. With up to 20 students per class permitted, students get personalised attention from their tutors. Also, teachers will be able to answer the queries of students very easily as it is a limited crowd. Teachers will also be able to interact with each and every student, and evaluate their learning.

Experienced teachers

As we already mentioned, all the classes are handled by experienced staff with immense experience. Principals, HODs, subject heads, level leads, specialist tutors handle the live tutorial sessions. Students will get to learn from the experts, and this will in turn help them understand the subject concepts in an elaborate manner.
