

Book Launch of Significant Ukrainian Anthology

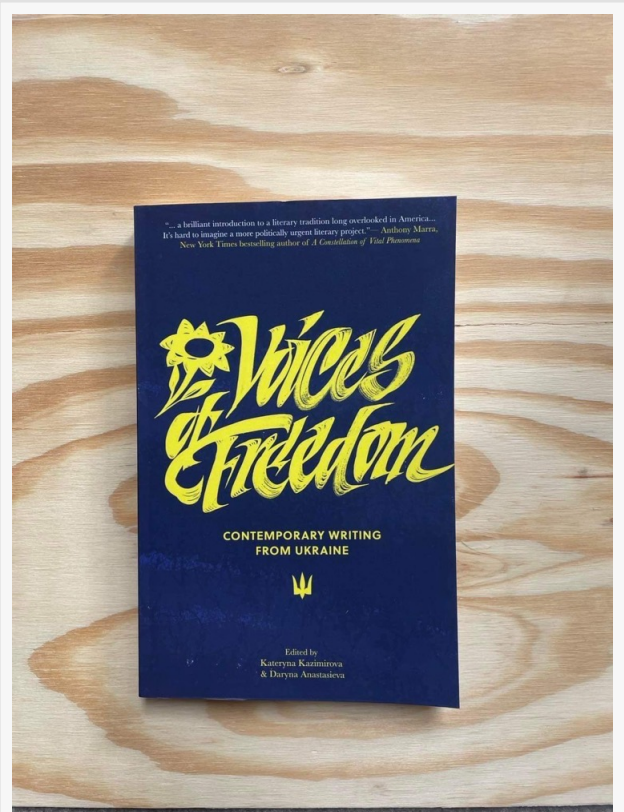

An evening with the Editor and Contributors of Voices of Freedom: Contemporary Writing From Ukraine

WASHINGTON, D.C., UNITED STATES, January 9, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Social activism hub, The Outrage, will host the official book launch of Voices of Freedom: Contemporary Writing From Ukraine on Thursday, January 12, 2023. The event, created in partnership with Craft Magazine, 8th & Atlas Publishing, and The Outrage, will take place at 1811 14th Street in Northwest Washington, DC. The work being showcased is an anthology that conveys the depth, diversity, and resistance of Ukrainian culture and actively preserves the national identity and culture in the face of war and displacement.

This evening will be devoted to a conversation with the Editor, Kateryna Kazimirova, about cultural resistance in Ukraine, the book project, and readings from some contributors. Guests will be invited to enjoy traditional Ukrainian food. Proceeds from the sale of Voices of Freedom: Contemporary Writing From Ukraine will support the cultural community and humanitarian efforts in Ukraine, namely Razom for Ukraine and Hospitaliers Medical Battalion.

The Outrage is your hub for activism — providing both the scaffolding and venue to make change a reality through sustained civic engagement. We seek to be the megaphone, not the voice, as we build community and shift culture by leveraging events, activations, fashion, and IRL community spaces to amplify social issues.

TICKETS: Tickets can be purchased through Eventbrite.

Voices of Freedom:
Contemporary Writing From
Ukraine is a brilliant
