CEI Provides Stress-Free Worldwide Live & Hybrid Event Production

CARLSBAD, CA, USA, January 10, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Corporate Events Inc. (CEI), a global audio-visual and production company, creates well-executed and stress-free corporate events that accommodate the growing demand for live events with hybrid models.

With the rise in remote work environments, corporate event production has become increasingly complex in recent years. CEI met this challenge by developing interactive hybrid event solutions to meet their customer needs while continuing to create impactful live events of all sizes and scopes.

CEI took a local approach to global events, providing sustainable solutions specific to the project, venue, and audience of their client.

“Andrew and the team did a fabulous job. I love working with CEI as they partner with you vs work with you to ensure they understand the event as much as the planners.” - Meeting Planner, US

“This meeting had 0 technical issues, and Alan is truly exceptional in his field. I always know my meetings will be a success when he is on them.” - Global Project Manager, Denmark

Live Event Production Services

CEI has 20 years of experience with live corporate event production services and they have been highly regarded in the industry for their ability to anticipate client needs, address on-the-spot issues, and provide the highest level of professionalism and customer support.

Their live event production services were scalable and customizable to best fit the needs of their client and included the following:

- Project Management
