

Vicenzaoro January 2023, it's time for LOCMAN Watches

The new TIME community, dedicated to contemporary watchmaking with multi-channel distribution, will open its doors from the 20th to the 24th of January.

NEW YORK, NY, USA, January 11, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- LOCMAN will be exhibiting at Vicenzaoro in January 2023; it's time for watches. The new TIME community, dedicated to contemporary watchmaking with multi-channel distribution, will debut from the 20th to the 24th of January. In addition, the B2B area will integrate the product offer of the Italian Exhibition Group show with a selection of brands.

"LOCMAN and Vicenza Oro partner in a national project to value the Italian watchmaking industry with its ancient tradition. Filippo Brunelleschi, Leonardo Da Vinci, Galileo Galilei, and many other Italians gave a strong impulse to the mechanical art of watches. This experience is still alive in the modern industry to service brands near Switzerland but also in national brands. LOCMAN, founded in 1986 as a private label service company, during the nineties decided to develop its name thanks to Hublot President, Mr. Crocco, who was a partner and international distributor of LOCMAN watches. Now, with the important contribution of OISA, specializing in high-level mechanical movements made in Italy, other Italian companies are creating original watch collections. In addition, Vicenza Fair dedicated an important space in Hall 1 to Italian watch producers. LOCMAN is a proud partner of this project, and Vicenza is an important opportunity for the international promotion of Italian quality in fine watches. -Marco Mantovani, President, LOCMAN

THE NEW "TIME" B2B COMMUNITY
In Hall 1, the heart of Vicenza Expo Centre, TIME will host around forty independent and established brands together with proposals offering a high content of creative research and innovation.

Brands such as Locman will be flanked by new entries from collaboration with two well-known players in the industry: a collective of Swiss brands put together by Swiss Creative Lab and a selection of high-potential Italian micro-brands and organized start-ups by Watches of Italy.

We celebrate the Italian watchmaking industry with its ancient traditions.

Marco Mantovani, President of LOCMAN

About LOCMAN: Founded on the Island of Elba, Italy, in 1986 and is renowned as a jewel in the crown of Italian watchmaking, the perfect fusion of Italian style, Tuscan watchmaking traditions, and new manufacturing technologies. The headquarters and factory are at Marina di Campo, on the Island of Elba, with branch offices in Florence, Milan, Miami, Hong Kong, and Tokyo. LOCMAN watches are recognized worldwide for using state-of-the-art materials such as titanium, carbon fiber, aluminum, and other hi-tech alloys. With a trendy and casual chic look, these ultra-light and resilient timepieces are popular among demanding watch lovers who want extraordinary, unique, fashionable, yet discreet pieces. We can count on excellent achievements during these 30+ years of passionate business, including the launch in 2003 of the first all-carbon case and the opening in 2006 of the Scuola Italiana di Orologeria, a watch academy dedicated to training highly specialized craft workers and to creating in-house movements. www.locman.it
