Zach Eyster, Intellectual Property Attorney and philanthropist, was recently promoted to partner at Founders Legal®.

ATLANTA, GA, USA, January 11, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Zach adds to the firm's strength in intellectual property law with his dynamic and energetic spirit and depth of experience. Zach's core competencies in trademarks, licensing, and technology transactions run deep, as he has operated within these very specialized, niche areas of practice over the course of his entire legal career.

Zach brings a valuable and strategic perspective to his legal work. His experience makes him well-equipped to advise clients at every stage of development and growth"

Yuri Eliezer, Co-founder and Managing Partner at Founders Legal®

"Zach brings a valuable and strategic perspective to his legal work. He has a knack for cutting to the core of a matter with great efficiency, identifying winning positions and strategies for his clients, and fighting for them with great passion," noted Yuri Eliezer, Co-founder and Managing Partner at Founders Legal®. "His experience in all phases of brand strategy and intellectual property prosecution and enforcement make him well-equipped to advise clients at every stage of development and growth."

Zach is deeply committed to philanthropy and serving the community. He truly lives by example: Zach is a non-directed kidney donor! He dedicates significant time to raise awareness for kidney donation as a board member of the advocacy group Kidney Donor Athletes. Kidney Donor Athletes promotes the benefits of living kidney donation and the full and active lives led by donors and recipients. "I am always thrilled to be an example of a life that has only been enhanced through donation," Zach shared about his experience. "While not the greatest athlete, I now run with a greater purpose to show what a one-kidneyed body can achieve!" Additionally, Zach previously served as a United Way of Greater Atlanta Tocqueville Society Cabinet Member and as a board member for Professional Adoption and Family Services.
