CEO Coach, Chuck Bolton, founder of The Bolton Group LLC, states, "As a CEO executive coach working exclusively in the healthcare sector, I'm asked daily by my clients and others for connections, information, and updates about what's new in our industry. Since work obligations made it impossible to attend live and converse with colleagues at this year's event, here's a list of the most useful reports for healthtech sector CEOs (and other industry leaders) from the past year I'm recommending to my clients."

Bolton continues, "Addressing topics like disruptive technologies, digital health, the future of healthcare, the growing role of private equity, the strategies of the biggest players, these reports share valuable insights. Which forces are transforming the healthtech industry? Which trends deserve the most attention? Which innovations are likely to disrupt? You'll find the answers within this baker's dozen list of informative free reports."

A sampling of the reports for healthcare CEOs in 2023 include:
