

Recounting of Extraordinary Events Shaped American History

Author shares personal take on pivotal events in American history

COOKSTOWN, NEW JERSEY, UNITED STATES, January 11, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- It is without question that the Kennedy family is an influential one. With its members holding political seats in the House and even in the White House, their impact is undoubtedly felt by most Americans, especially during the '60s and '70s. One of their former aides, author Loudell Insley, shares her personal perspective on what it is to be in such close contact with two of the formidable members of the family, Ted and Robert Kennedy, and how such an experience changed her path forever in Life on a Road Less Traveled.

A Maryland native, Loudell Insley was born in Salisbury and subsequently completed her basic education in the area. She moved to Washington in 1965 and worked for Ted Kennedy until 1970. During that period, her services were 'loaned' to Robert Kennedy's campaign, where she worked closely with the Senator until his assassination in 1968. Loudell went on to work for the Peace Corps and the Democratic National Committee before settling back in her hometown in 1972. She later began real estate in 1976 and has been a successful realtor, a profession she enjoyed until July 2022.

Working closely with the Kennedy brothers enabled Loudell to witness pivotal events in America that shaped the course of its history. From working in the fray as an aide to the younger Kennedy to actually being on the presidential campaign trail with Robert Kennedy, the author was an active participant and spectator during critical points in American history. Her recollections of the events are surmised in this book and bring the reader closer to what life was like during that era and how working for the famous family changed the course of her own life.

Life on a Road Less Traveled is out now; a book that will be a joy to read for history aficionados. Available on Amazon and at bookstores near you.

About The Reading Glass Books

The Reading Glass Books is your local bookstore with a heart and now an emerging self-publishing house. We believe that each book is an experience, and we take that into heart as we celebrate both writers and readers manifested on our bookshelves—becoming part of everyone's reading journey since 2020.

Please visit www.readingglassbooks.com for more information.

Lyn Goot

The Reading Glass Books

support@readingglassbooks.com

Visit us on social media:

Facebook

Twitter

Instagram

YouTube

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/610684303>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2023 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.