

Circles Expands to Poland

Team will help enhance the quality of life and save time daily, encouraging more engaged employees and meeting overall business needs.

WALTHAM, MA, USA, January 13, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Circles, a global concierge and workplace experience provider and part of Sodexo, a world leader in Quality of Life Service, today announced the official expansion into Poland. This will bring their presence in Europe to seven countries after France, UK, Sweden, Netherlands, Luxembourg, and Switzerland. The new concierge service offering will be available throughout Poland to meet the growing industry demands.

For more than 20 years Circles has been the industry leader in concierge and personal assistance services. Operating worldwide, Circles services provide a support network and trusted personal assistance to employees inside and outside of the workplace.

With a focus on virtual services and errand running, the Polish team will aim to meet the needs of clients and their employees in Poland, enhancing quality of life and saving time daily. Through local expertise, Circles assists with travel arrangements, errand needs, and more—improving business productivity, increasing job satisfaction, and building morale.

The Polish operation will be headed by Dominika Majcherczyk, Head of Business Services Support in Sodexo Poland, who has more than 10 years of experience in business services.

According to Circles CEO, Yohan Dehé the expansion will allow Circles to better meet the needs of clients in eastern Europe by having people and infrastructure on the ground in this region, an area that is showing strong growth for the company. "The growth of our business in Europe is important to our long-term strategic plans of gaining market share and developing new opportunities. We're very excited to expand our footprint in this area," Dehé said.
