The Colorado ISE show will be kicked-off with a VIP party hosted by HuntPost on Thursday evening for the hundreds of exhibitors traveling to Denver from all around world. HuntPost.com will be covering the four-day event by interviewing the exhibitors for their new online video series.

We'll video interview hundreds of the top hunting and fishing exhibitors in effort to expose our online users to all of the awesome products and services provided by the best retailers in the industry”

Lynn Murphy

“I am very excited to host our new Feature Exhibitor Series this year at the International Sportsmen's Expos,” said HuntPost CEO, Lynn Murphy. “We'll video interview hundreds of the top hunting and fishing exhibitors in effort to expose our online users to all of the awesome products and services provided by the best retailers in the industry,” added Murphy.

“We have spent the past four months preparing for the 2023 trade show season by increasing our size and presence of the HuntPost Social Marketplace,” adds

HuntPost President, Scott Burse. “We are rolling out our new 900 Sq Ft exhibit booth to accommodate the increased foot traffic at our shows, as well as showcasing our custom HuntPost Jeep Wrangler that will be given away to a lucky HuntPost.com user this year," added Bursey.

The 2023 ISE shows launch on January 12th in Denver, Colorado. Next week, the ISE moves to Sacramento, California at Cal Expo from January 19th through the 22nd, and then heads to Salt Lake City, Utah from March 16th through the 19th.

HuntPost.com is one of the major exhibitors at each of the ISE shows in 2023, spotlighting their new social marketplace and custom HuntPost Jeep Wrangler sweepstakes giveaway.

The International Sportsmen's Expositions (ISE) presents the largest sportsmen expos in three western states. For decades these consumer events in Colorado, California and Utah have presented the destinations, products, and services of more than 1,000 companies to millions of outdoor enthusiasts wanting to discover their life outdoors.
