education activities, reviewing of treatment and training protocols, clinical data review and advocacy with third-party payors.

“Dr. Peretsman has spent many years as a leading Sonablate HIFU user, physician trainer, and focal therapy advocate. He is joining Sonablate Corp. at a pivotal time for the company” says Alex Gonzalez, Chief Commercial Officer of Sonablate Corp. “With recent reimbursement updates from CMS and an increased interest in focal therapy within the urology community, Dr. Peretsman’s experience will be welcomed within the organization and our global customer base.”

Dr. Peretsman is a board-certified urologist, completing medical school at Boston University of Medicine, his residency at Wilford Hall USAF Medical Center, and his fellowship in Urologic Oncology at Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center. Most recently, Dr. Peretsman has been practicing at the Urology Specialists of the Carolinas in Charlotte, NC. He is a leading minimally invasive specialist having performed over 3,000 da Vinci robotic prostatectomies and having pioneered both cryotherapy and high intensity focused ultrasound (HIFU). Dr. Peretsman has treated patients using Sonablate HIFU for over 17 years and has trained fellow US and International physicians on the technology.

“Spending over 17 years treating patients with Sonablate HIFU has given me confidence in the technology. I have seen personally how the treatment has changed patients and their families’ lives. I am honored to be appointed Medical Director at Sonablate Corp. and am looking forward to bringing my wealth of urologic knowledge and experience to the company.” Says Dr. Samuel Peretsman.
