

iUrban Teen Partners with Microsoft on STEM Summit for Middle School and High School Students

Free event set to offer STEM enrichment and workshops to area youth of Black, Indigenous, Latino and Pacific Island descent

SEATTLE, WA, USA, January 13, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On February 11, 2023, iUrban Teen will host an informational, engaging one day event featuring STEM workshops and ideation sessions for Middle School and High School students at the Microsoft Campus in Irving, TX. The sessions will begin at 9 am and conclude at 2:30 pm.

The summit will also include a parent roundtable, as a central part of iUrban Teen's focus is family engagement. Since its founding in 2011, iUrban Teen has continued to cultivate strong family relationships, fostering a sense of community for the youth and families it serves.

Microsoft's Ebony Vick, Customer Success Account Manager and Diversity and Inclusion Advocate says she is looking forward to the summit because of the exposure it will offer students to potential career paths. "I enjoy partnering with iUrban Teen! Together, we're shedding light on the diversity of careers in tech and encouraging our future leaders in STEM,"

In addition to exciting workshops and ideation sessions, the day will also include an opportunity for students to win raffle prizes.

Deena Pierott, founder of iUrban Teen, is particularly excited about the summit and what it will offer area youth. "Everything we do at iUrban Teen is centered around equity, diversity and inclusion, she says. "It's all about exposure and access."

The poster features the iUrban Teen logo at the top left, which includes the text "iUrban Teen" and "iImagine • iLearn • iSucceed". The main title is "iUrban Teen's STEM Summit with Microsoft". A circular image shows a modern building with a walkway. Below the title, the location is "7000 State Hwy 161 (Bldg LC1), Irving, TX 75039", the date is "Saturday, February 11, 2023", and the time is "9:00am - 2:30pm". A "REGISTER NOW" button is present, along with a QR code labeled "Scan me!". The text below the QR code says "Come and Join us for a day filled with fun and technology for Middle and High School students, we will have workshops, ideation sessions, and even a parent roundtable. This event is free to attend and lunch will be provided. Plus, we'll have really cool raffle prizes. iUrban Teen Serves Black, Indigenous, Latino and Pacific Islander students." At the bottom, there are social media icons for Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, and LinkedIn, with handles "iUrbanTeen" and "iurbanteen", and the website "www.iurbanteen.org". The Microsoft logo is at the bottom right with the text "WORKSHOPS BY: Microsoft AND MORE." The background has a yellow and white circuit board pattern.

Everything we do at iUrban Teen is centered around equity, diversity and inclusion, she says. "It's all about exposure and access."
