Scandinave Spa Blue Mountain

In 2022, Canadian travel seekers, tired of restrictions and closed borders, increased demand for outdoor, nature-inspired, and healthy experiences. Scandinave Spa Blue Mountain, nestled in a tranquil forest setting, delivers a special retreat in an iconic Ontario destination. Guests can take the time they need to fully disconnect from their everyday routines to replenish their mind, body, and soul.

"Scandinave Spa Blue Mountain epitomizes the Canadian spa and wellness experience by incorporating relaxation in the heart of nature," says Spas of America President Craig Oliver. "Scandinave Spa Blue Mountain has consistently been one of the leading spa and wellness destinations with our audience, providing visitors with an incomparable guest experience, and amazing facilities."

It is an exciting time to be a Nordic Spa experience in Canada. "With more people exploring the health benefits of immersive water therapy, Scandinave Spas continue to curate new wellness adventures for guests to enjoy," says Scandinave Spa Blue Mountain co-Owner, Mylisa Henderson.

About Scandinave Spa Blue Mountain

Just 2 hours from Toronto, Scandinave Spa Blue Mountain offers a year-round, all season relaxation experience in a spacious forest setting, including the Silver Creek Preserve. Within minutes of Collingwood and Blue Mountain Resort, the Spa offers the Thermal Baths activity and guests can enhance their day further with a Massage treatment. Many of the indoor and outdoor spaces have expansive views of the UNESCO Niagara Escarpment Biosphere Reserve. An added feature is the Forest Bathing Trail which was certified by the Association of Nature & Forest Therapy (ANFT) in late 2018, one of the only such trails in Canada.
