Today, MSMEs need funds for the purpose of capex, operations, and business development activities. However, since MSMEs usually operate in capex heavy sectors, much of the internal cash flows and funding gets trapped in capex financing - MSME Business Forum attempts to specifically address this by innovative solutions on lending, leasing thru investor involvement.

Shri Ravi Nandan Sinha, Director of Development, MSME Business Forum India, said, "The root problem from the domestic MSME sector is failure to attract the private capital into their business, leading to constant starvation for funds. MSME owners and the entrepreneurs should thrive to rope in professional money. At MSME Business forum India our endeavour is to show global investors that MSMEs are potential for 2X growth if supported with investment.

Transitioning into a growth-oriented enterprise is a dream for all MSME Businesses . Partnering for growth with global Investors, and the right network helps scale business, and Opportunity Network Conference 2023 is ideally suited for MSMEs, StartUps to interact , said Rachana Chowdhary, CEO-MVW-MSME Development Centre.

Opportunity Network 2023 conference at Delhi, is an opportunity for MSME owners to interact with business leaders, domestic as well hear from foreign investors and industry experts on various alternative solutions.

In addition to the above, the Opportunity Network Conference shall also provide MSMEs owners opportunities and avenues in digitization, Govt e-market place, improving trust score for fundraising amongst others. Investor/Promoter/Founder expressing views in the conference will be Mr Navin Biyani, Mr Nitin Arwade, Mr Ankit Totla, Mr Vikas Maheshwari, Mr Nirav Shah, Mr Kalyan Jagnani, CA Rahul Gupta, Mr Shrikanth Patil, Ms Priyanka Pandey and key Govt & Bank officials attending from across India .
