About Money 2.0 Conference:

The Money 2.0 Conference is a three-day event dedicated to encouraging excellence in education, research, and practice related to law and finance. The speakers at the conference will talk about topics such as scam/fraud prevention in fintech, investing in the stock market, paying off debt, and understanding tax laws. They will also host thought leaders from corporate law and finance to offer insights into everything, from risk management to IPO structuring.

The COVID-19 pandemic has been a wake-up call for financial services experts and Money 2.0 Conference hopes to help them keep up and gain tremendous momentum. At the conference, attendees will have the chance to network with other professionals from around the world who share their interests and goals.
