Cassi Manner, owner of Game Changer Marketing Solutions

"I'm thrilled that my hard work has paid off and Game Changer Marketing Solutions is thriving after 4 years of hard work and dedication to our client's success," explains Cassi Manner, owner of the company. "Many people find it intimidating to navigate today's digital world in order to market their business, but it's the marketing world I grew up in, so my team and I are comfortable with it." Manner's team of 10 is made up of women ranging from 21-29 years old.

From humble beginnings in a small farm town in Connecticut with 70 students in her graduating high school class, Cassi has certainly expanded her network. No stranger to digital media success, Manner is a social media expert, model, and blogger, who has an Instagram following of over 530,000 people. She is a freediver who blogs about freediving in Hawaii, as well as health, travel, fashion, fitness, and more. She is able to use the power of today's digital media world to help herself, and her clients, reach more potential customers, stay in contact with their current customers, and increase brand awareness.

What sets Game Changer Marketing Solutions apart is Manner's knowledge of using digital media. Her millennial team focuses on providing such solutions as expert web design and search engine optimization, social media management, brand awareness, email newsletter management, paid digital advertising, and photo and video content creation.

Millions of people begin their search for products and services online. They use the Internet to find information, read reviews, see videos, learn about companies, and more. In order for businesses to tap into the power of that audience it's important that they understand the various ways to reach their potential customers, and how to turn them into buyers. Online is also an important way to help brand a company and bring a business to life, with also providing the ability to interact with consumers.

"Today's marketing doesn't need to be overwhelming or create a headache," adds Manner. "It's a matter of working with someone who understands it and can help your business excel in it. That's exactly what I specialize in and the mission of Game Changer Marketing Solutions."

Manner's marketing agency in Hawaii has soared to the top, under her leadership, where she shares everything she knows and understands about today's digital market.
