"Utah's state motto, Industry, dates back to 1959. We prove it every day, Forbes ranks Utah as one of the top three States in the U.S. for conducting business. Utah's appeal for international companies stems from a strong business climate. Utah's fastest-growing GDP, new international airport and Delta hub, high quality of life, and young, booming, multilingual workforce make the State of Utah a top choice for international expansion. We check all the boxes," states David Carlebach, COO & Managing Director of the World Trade Center (WTC) Utah.

Speakers:

Guru Sowle, President, IIRF America

Lt. General CA Krishnan, Board of Advisors IIRF

David Carlebach, COO & Managing Director, WTC Utah

Jonathan Bench, International Attorney, Board Member WTC Utah

Mary Louise Luczkowski, IIRF America Board of Directors

Dr. Venus Jain, IIRF Board of Governors

"Based on my personal and professional interactions, I can think of no better long-term partnership to forge more closely than between India and the U.S., conveys Bench.

"IIRF America's webinar series fosters economic collaboration between the United States and India. We are bringing in resources to help remove barriers for U.S. and India Companies to expand their presence across these two democracies," affirms Sowle.

About World Trade Center Utah

World Trade Center Utah is a private, nonprofit organization that's mission is to accelerate international growth for Utah companies through our global network, programs, and services. Officially joining the World Trade Center Association in 2007, the organization has helped companies throughout the state actualize their global potential and was recognized with the 2021 President's "E" Award for Export Service — the highest recognition any U.S. entity can receive for making a significant contribution to the expansion of U.S. exports.
