Chamber of Commerce is delighted to announce that they are partnering with the New Mexico Distiller's Guild and the New Mexico Restaurant Association to present the first annual Red River Spirits Showcase.

Partnerships like these bring New Mexico craft spirits to the forefront and elevate the experience of our customers by immersing them in all that our local craft distilleries have to offer.”

“As an advocate for our members, Red River Chamber is always looking for opportunities to highlight the best of what our members, Red River, the Enchanted Circle, and the state of New Mexico have to offer,” says Naoma STaley, Red River Chamber of Commerce CEO. “During our other events (Red River Art & Wine Festival and Red River Oktoberfest) we get to show off our amazing local wineries and breweries – and now we’re pleased to be partnering with the NM Distiller’s Guild to bring the incredible spirits made across our state directly to you!”

The Chamber and the Distiller’s Guild had been kicking around ways it might be appropriate to partner. When the planning for Friday Night Drink Contest began, they realized that this was the chance they’d been looking for. The drink contest has been happening for over 13 years and is a perfect opportunity to highlight member distillers, the Red River Brewing and Distilling Company, and other New Mexico craft spirits.

“We are thrilled to bring the Spirits Showcase to Red River and partner with the Chamber,” says Scott Feuille, President of the New Mexico Distillers Guild. “Partnerships like these bring New Mexico craft spirits to the forefront, and elevate the experience of our customers by immersing them in all that our local distilleries have to offer.”
