J-Man stated “These college roommates turned dynamic duo, Courtney Miles Baraff and Kate Mefford met at Texas Christian University. Both creative and entrepreneurial, they felt destined for a business adventure. Muralist + photographer + nonprofit creator + art professor + psychology professor + art consultant + academic coach + art gallerist. You'd have to be one of their best friends or family members to correctly guess which of these titles belongs to which. Patterns suggest that somewhere along the way, the fibers of art, philanthropy, and education were bound to be woven together with these ladies in the name of The Rollup.”
