About Sweet Moments Company

Sweet Moments Company was founded in 2019 by Therese and Brent Ludwig who began offering virtual cooking experiences to their local community by the summer of 2020. The couple hand-delivered all of the ingredients to each participant's door as a way to give back during the initial challenging years of the COVID-19 pandemic.

In a short period of time, Sweet Moments Company began to outgrow its humble beginnings, especially as the concept of virtual cooking classes became increasingly popular. Many corporations were contacting them to do private events, and this led to a rapid change in their business model to facilitate large requests.

By 2021, the company was shipping throughout the United States and moved into a commercial building in Phoenix with an office space, certified commercial kitchen, and shipping warehouse under one roof.

Therese boasts 15 years in the culinary industry, with over 10 years as a chef instructor, and the couple couldn't be more thrilled and blessed to wake up and do what they love daily.
