another part of Alberta's beautiful landscape. Whether its a weekend break from city life or a week-long horseback riding adventure with family and friends, the Rocking R Guest Ranch is the perfect destination for an unforgettable ranch vacation in Southern Alberta.

Summer ranch vacations at this guest ranch include amenities like; cozy cabin lodging to hearty gourmet or family-style meals and complimentary use of the wood stoves, hot tub, and guest areas. Summer vacation packages range from the Heartland tour to white-water rafting and fly-fishing.

The Heartland Tour is one of their biggest summer attractions! Because we're located right beside where the hit tv show 'Heartland' is filmed, guests can book the Heartland package and tour where Heartland is filmed, learn to ride horses on a real guest ranch and possibly even see a live filming of the show! Along the way, guests can eat at Maggie's Diner, and enjoy hearty breakfasts delivered right to the cabin! A summer vacation on the ranch has many options for families to enjoy.

Winter ranch vacations are just as spectacular and packages range from a romantic getaway for two, including chocolate covered strawberries and champagne to a winter wonderland adventure full of snowshoeing, hot chocolate, and camp-out fires!

The ranch is home to a small herd of horses, a mini-Shetland pony and donkey, and a small herd of Nigerian dwarf goats which roam the ranch under the prairie sky giving guests an authentic western experience.

With its rustic cabins and breathtaking scenery, the Rocking R Guest Ranch is sure to provide unforgettable memories that will last a lifetime. Whether its adventure or relaxing experience or just some simple joys of being in nature, The Rocking R Guest Ranch is the perfect destination for a wilderness ranch vacation.
