"We're thrilled to launch 'More to Mexico' and to be able to share our love and passion for this beautiful country with our followers," said Edmundo Arnett, founder of the account. "Mexico is a country that offers so much diversity and has so many hidden gems that are often overlooked. Our goal is to showcase these unique and lesser-known sides of Mexico and to inspire our followers to visit and explore the country for themselves."

The "More to Mexico" account will feature a mix of beautiful photography, videos, and informative content, highlighting the best of Mexico's destinations, culture, and traditions. From the beaches of Cancun to the mountains of Oaxaca, the account will take its followers on a journey through the country, showcasing the best activities and places to visit, as well as the delicious traditional food, and the rich history and culture of Mexico.

"We believe that Mexico is much more than just beaches and resorts," says Edmundo Arnett. "It's
