

HodgePodge Reaches New Milestone, Serves More than 2000 Customers in 5 Years

More than 2,000 satisfied customers in five years is much more than business success. It is a milestone in customer service achievement.

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, UNITED STATES,

January 23, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Servicing more than 2,000 customers in just five years is not only a terrific milestone of customer satisfaction but a solid reflection of customer trust and exceptional service.

It is also the unique achievement of HodgePodge, the Illinois and Indiana industry leader for full-service moving, goods removal, and on-demand storage services. "Our careful attention to detail not only sets us apart, but is definitely the key for continuing to earn our trusted reputation," says spokesperson Miroslaw Wcislo.

He credits the HodgePodge professionals, for lots of hard work and for the efficient, full-service, and secure moving expertise, the junk removal, and self-storage services, sustainable hauling, packing & unpacking, and the secure, on-demand storage.

The dynamics of contemporary life illustrate how the wants and needs and situations of today's customers can vary significantly. It could be local or long distance moving. Or, downsizing. Or, de-cluttering a current living area, and other needs for reliable, efficient, and secure storage.

The milestone (and bragging right) of 2,000 customers in the past five years is a significant indicator, and a positive reflection, of tremendous customer satisfaction about the HodgePodge service professionalism.

Trusted professionalism is a key part of any moving project or storage. But, as some moving company customers can vouch, while the trust factor is very important, it can sometimes be a confusing consumer challenge. Mostly because of the risks are often caused by some moving companies hiring inexperienced and unreliable part-time staff.

Wcislo points out another vital part of the excellent reputation which accounts for the impressive HodgePodge achievement of 2,000 customers in five years. "All of our staff are trained and qualified employees, and not untrained and inexperienced part-timers, subcontracted out to other companies.”

In addition to the expertise and professionalism of full service moving, a key aspect of the company's difference is that all the HodgePodge services are fully insured and bonded for peace of mind and maximum protection.
