

Alander Lee Pulliam Jr Announces Campaign for United States President 2024

Pulliam will run as an independent working to reform and reimagine education, tackle homelessness and bring change to our broken healthcare system

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, January 23, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Pulliam is a Harvard-educated, American film producer, author, and serial entrepreneur whose background, multiple degrees and diversity of experiences have led him to see firsthand the promise of our great nation. Having had the experience of being homeless himself prior to building a long-standing career as an executive, Pulliam also understands the challenges faced by many in this country from a first-hand basis. His role in helping to shape the entertainment landscape via numerous successes in music and film, in addition to bringing disruption to finance and banking utilizing Fintech technology, has allowed him a unique vantage point to reflect upon and challenge long-standing yet broken systems. This background also has led him to understand that to flourish we must bring back skilled trade programs, forgive student loans, and that we must prop up small businesses by shaking up a banking system that has for too long denied opportunity. "This country has given me a chance to invest in myself and build my own version of the American dream and it pains me deeply to see trillions in funding going towards endless wars, a broken education system, and the continued presence of racism.

Help is valuable, anyone who looks for help and do not value it when it comes to them they will reap no benefits from it.”

Alander Pulliam

"I will help to build the country and its people into stronger versions of themselves to pull us from ruin and let all citizens realize their potential", Stated Mr. Pulliam. "I am not running to provide empty promises, but to provide action. All actions I will take are rooted deep in my faith and strict adherence to God's word in scripture as it is written." Mr. Pulliam will focus on a better education for

Alander Pulliam
