The story of a father who regaled his ten children with the adventures of Erbert and Gerbert Herbert. Brothers who traversed the universe in search of adventure, but found things much more valuable--wisdom, kindness, and most importantly, friendship. One particularly impressionable child grew up to become the founder of Erbert and Gerbert's--who named the sandwiches after the characters Erbert and Gerbert encountered in the stories such as the Spartan, Titan, Flash, Narmer, Neuron, and more.
