

ShipMonk Announces International Fulfillment Expansion to the United Kingdom

ShipMonk's new UK fulfillment center empowers ecommerce brands to affordably expand European operations.

FORT LAUDERDALE, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, January 24, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ShipMonk, a leading provider of ecommerce fulfillment and 3PL technology solutions, continues its international expansion to a new location in the United Kingdom. The fulfillment center adds another layer to ShipMonk's growing global network that includes affordably expand their European operations. Strategically located within the major logistics hub of Birmingham, the UK fulfillment center provides direct access to the British Isles and all of Europe. The new fulfillment center is located at: Unit 3 Interlink Way E, Bardon Hill, Coalville LE67 1LG, UK.

Expanding within the UK supports ShipMonk's continuing mission to improve client margins, drive down operational costs, and empower ecommerce merchants to grow their brands. The tech-enabled, 1st party UK fulfillment center will be completely owned, managed, and operated by ShipMonk. Responding to client demands, this new European 3PL stronghold will offer the same best-in-class services, reduced shipping rates, and faster delivery times ShipMonk is known for.

"We base business decisions on how we can enhance our platform so it provides our clients with opportunities for continued success and growth," said Jan Bednar, ShipMonk's founder and CEO. "Expanding our footprint globally not only widens the scale of our operations and diversifies resources, it enables our clients to scale to new geographies seamlessly."

Within the past year, ShipMonk has accelerated its strategic growth and international expansion through acquisitions of El Mar Mexico (321 Fulfillment from Mexico) and Ruby Has Fulfillment (adding six United States locations and one in Canada). ShipMonk UK will further advance the company's plan for expanded carrier territories while enhancing its first-of-its-kind technology platform to serve existing and new clients internationally.

The ShipMonk Fulfillment Platform eliminates the stress and hassle involved with managing orders, tracking inventory, and dealing with fluctuating shipping circumstances so entrepreneurs can focus on growing and scaling their businesses. ShipMonk technology can give ecommerce merchants the extra peace of mind that orders will arrive on time, accurately, and reliably.
