

Benchmark Partners with Enterprise Health to Expand Occupational Health Offering

Benchmark Digital Partners is pleased to announce its new partnership with Enterprise Health, an occupational health software company.

CINCINNATI, OHIO, UNITED STATES, January 24, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Benchmark Digital Partners, a leading provider of cloud-based Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) software solutions, is pleased to announce its new partnership with Enterprise Health, an occupational health software company headquartered in Fort Wayne, Indiana, USA.

Enterprise Health is the only employee health SaaS solution that combines occupational health and compliance, clinical care, and employee engagement built on a single, certified, interoperable, cloud-based platform.

"We are pleased to be working with Benchmark, as they are regarded as a best-in-class ESG solution," said Enterprise Health president Jeff Donnell. "We already share several mutual clients with Benchmark, and we are confident that a combined offering will provide significant incremental value to large employers who recognize that creating a culture of health is an essential component of an ESG strategy."

Enterprise Health supports blue chip clients operating on-site employee health clinics across a wide array of verticals — including Fortune 500 companies in the financial, pharmaceutical, energy, manufacturing and entertainment industries; large hospitals and health systems; and federal and state government agencies.

From this formal partner agreement, Benchmark will be able to recommend a more robust suite of tools and resources to current occupational health subscribers who require large-scale solutions beyond the scope of the Med Care® module.

"Total Worker Health is critical to our customers and a key dimension of their broader ESG commitments. We are thrilled to partner with Enterprise Health, widely recognized as industry leader for occupational health, wellness & safety solution providers," says Donovan Hornsby, Chief Market Strategy Officer at Benchmark. "We look forward to working with the Enterprise Health team to advance industry best practices and a culture of health, safety and high performance ESG."

“Bringing together the best in Occupational Health / EHS & ESG is truly exciting,” said Pete Bolderstone, Leader, Benchmark Partner Program. “This is a catalyst for unparalleled opportunities to benefit existing and prospective customer organizations.”
