

Voting launches for 4th Annual The Grizzly Awards, celebrating faith-based rock and metal

Voting is open now through February 6.

COLORADO SPRINGS, CO, UNITED STATES, January 24, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Voting has launched for the 4th annual The Grizzly Awards, celebrating faith-based rock and metal. Fans can cast their votes at <https://rockon.ink/VoteGrizzlies> until February 6.

This year, fans are invited to cast one ballot, which they can edit at any time until voting closes. The categories have been pared back to focus on the single unifying factor that joins musicians, industry professionals, and fans: the music and its purpose.

“As we continue to navigate the challenges of stewarding the Grizzlies vision, we’re constantly innovating to do so in a way that’s responsible with our resources,” offers The Grizzly Awards team, which includes Mary Nikkel, Joel Burris, Cindy Blankenship and Trevor Tyson. “Like the artists we celebrate, we’re committed to being agile. That means that we’re keeping logistics simple this year to focus on what matters most: the music and the mission.”

Fans can vote in 10 categories, with an additional write-in category meant to honor individual band members. You can see all nominees listed below.

The Grizzly Awards is fan-powered in more than just the votes: as a not-for-profit entity, The Grizzlies depend entirely on fan donations in order to produce the event and supply artists with awards. Donations can be made through PayPal to thegrizzlyawards@gmail.com, or Venmo to @Mary-Nikkel. All donations of $50 or above will get a limited edition Grizzlies poster.

Business sponsorships are also available upon request. You can email
