

CodeBot for SAP SuccessFactors is delighted to announce their renewal of the ISO 27001 certification

CARROLLTON,, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, January 24, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CodeBot for SAP SuccessFactors is delighted to announce their renewal of the ISO 27001 certification. This certification is a part of the ISO 27000 family of standards pertaining to Robotic Process Automation. CodeBot has renewed this certification for the second year and is one of the few SAP Store Apps in the automation industry to have an ISO certification.

The ISO 27001 Certification highlights the capabilities CodeBot for SAP SuccessFactors provides including:

- CodeBot remains highly committed to security and compliance
- CodeBot brings much needed capacity to clients and partners by enabling the deployment and maintenance of SAP SuccessFactors with less effort, expense, and risk
- Maintenance of configuration and governance efforts are automated and error free
- SAP SuccessFactors clients achieve their digital transformation goals with greater agility, speed, and certainty

“Our team at CodeBot for SAP SuccessFactors is focused on increasing employee engagement, enabling digital adoption, and accelerating business transformation while assuring error free performance of SAP SuccessFactors”, said Shawn Lancaster, Strategist and Customer Success Executive. “The importance of ISO 27001 certification cannot be understated. Customers are more satisfied with SAP SuccessFactors when they know that CodeBot for SAP SuccessFactors is ensuring the security of their data, speed of service delivery, and transparency in their People and HRIS operations.”.
