The Blue Apple Bus service from Mansfield to Logan Airport is a game-changer for people living along the Route 95 Corridor.”

John Cogliano, President/CEO

(<http://blueapplebus.com>) announced today that, effective Saturday, January 21st, the company will increase from ten round trips to fifteen daily round trips of bus service from the Mansfield MBTA Station to Logan Airport in Boston. For bus schedule and tickets, go to: blueapplebus.com

John Cogliano, President and CEO of Blue Apple Bus Company, said that the bus service between the Mansfield MBTA Station to Logan Airport provides a reliable transportation option that is cost effective for the public. The Blue Apple bus service from Mansfield to Logan Airport is a real solution to the high price of gas and the stressful drive people have traveling to the airport.

Cogliano said, “The Blue Apple bus service is expanding to fifteen daily round trips of bus service from Mansfield to Logan Airport from 3 am to 10 pm and from Logan Airport to Mansfield from 3:45 am to 11:45 pm. The Blue Apple Bus service from Mansfield to Logan Airport is a game-changer for people living along the Route 95 Corridor.”

Cogliano, who held the top state transportation positions including Massachusetts Secretary of Transportation and Chairman of the MBTA, Commissioner of the Massachusetts Highway Department, and the Chairman and CEO of the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority, said, “This new daily bus service from Mansfield to Logan Airport is a public-private partnership that only could have happened with the support of the Town of Mansfield, GATRA, MassDOT, MBTA, Federal Highway Administration, Federal Transit Administration, US Congressman Stephen Lynch, US Congressman Jake Auchincloss, State Representative Jay Barrows, and State Senator Paul Feeney; all working together.”

“Traveling on a Blue Apple bus to Logan Airport is a safer, greener, and more cost-effective way to travel to your destination. Every Blue Apple bus can take up to 55 cars off the road which reduces local traffic congestion, reduces overall gas consumption, and truly benefits the environment," Cogliano said.

Parking for passengers using the Blue Apple Bus airport express bus service is available at the Foundry Parking Facility located at Howe Street, in Mansfield adjacent to the MBTA Mansfield Station Parking Facility.
