KHS is a global leader because of our collective commitment to inclusion and supporting people to live full lives within the community.”

Chuck Sweeder

-- Keystone Human Services is pleased to announce Charles S. Sweeder as the third President and CEO in KHS history. He succeeds Charles J. Hooker III, who retired on January 24, 2023.

“I have worked with Chuck for two decades, and I am excited that he is the next President and CEO of KHS,” Hooker said. “The future of KHS is bright with his continued dedication to those we support, their families, and our employees.”

Sweeder began his career with Keystone Human Services in 2003 as Controller. He continued his leadership within KHS as Chief Financial Officer, Vice President of Finance, and Executive Vice President. He served in the role of President-Elect for the majority of 2022.

“I am honored to be the next President and CEO of KHS. I am grateful to Charlie and the KHS Board for their confidence and support during this transition,” said Chuck Sweeder. “KHS is a global leader because of our collective commitment to inclusion and supporting people to live full lives within the community.”

Stephen Rader, KHS Board Chair, added: “Executive succession has been an important aspect of our strategic planning for many years at Keystone Human Services. On behalf of the Board of Directors, I want to thank Charlie for his leadership over the past three decades. It was important for us to find the next leader for the KHS community, and we are pleased to welcome Chuck to his new role. KHS is positioned well, and we will continue to strive to enhance our life-changing mission under his leadership.”
