

Local Safety Business Recognized by Leading Indigenous Training & Employment Association

Dave Ferro of Dave Ferro Safety is recognized by Tribal Chiefs Employment and Training Services Association for his continued support.

EDMONTON, ALBERTA, CANADA, January 24, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dave Ferro Safety Ltd, an Edmonton-based safety consulting and training company is excited to announce that owner, Dave Ferro, has received the TCETSA Partner Recognition Award 2022. This award is presented by the Tribal Chiefs Employment and Training Services Association (TCETSA). It recognizes Dave for his ongoing commitment and support to Indigenous communities and Truth and Reconciliation.

Tribal Chiefs Employment and Training Services Association is a workforce development agency that supports employment and training in six of Alberta's First Nations. Their mission is to create meaningful, long-term work opportunities for Indigenous people.

About Dave Ferro, TCETSA says "Dave Ferro Safety Ltd has proven to be a trusted Business Partner. We recognize, thank, and honour Dave Ferro for being compassionate and eager to learn about Truth & Reconciliation and the atrocities suffered by Indigenous peoples. Dave's leadership and action in Truth and Reconciliation are appreciated!"

Ferro is thrilled to be recognized by the team at TCETSA. He says "I was very pleased to be thought of. I partnered with TCETSA because I really enjoyed working with Eva John-Gladue and felt that the organization was excellent in its goals and mission."

Ferro has been partnered with TCETSA since 2017 when he designed a safety program for their Tiny Homes project. In addition to Occupational Health and Safety, Ferro has supported TCETSA's
