

Gauteng Residents Ready To Tackle Issues After Receiving Tools for Life Training From Scientology Volunteer Ministers

Over 170 educators, religious leaders and community leaders from Gauteng graduated a Skills Development Program provided by the Scientology Volunteer Ministers.

MIDRAND, GAUTENG, SOUTH AFRICA, January 25, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Recently, over 170 educators, religious leaders, and community leaders gathered at Castle for a prestigious graduation ceremony to celebrate the completion of a Skills Development Program provided by the Scientology Volunteer Ministers. The program, known as Tools for Life equipped them with skills to help people overcome the impossible barriers to learning, how to achieve self-confidence, communication, and many other social issues such as bullying, substance abuse, conflict, low self-esteem, and more.

Extremely concerned by the horrendous conditions in their communities, the graduates sacrificed their festive season and dedicated themselves to learning the skills provided for in the program. They dedicated their time to empowering themselves with the Tools for Life program from L. Ron Hubbard, so they can better assist their communities.

In attendance were various professionals from all major cities in the province, including Tshwane, West Rand, Sedibeng, Ekurhuleni, and Johannesburg, who were more than eager to celebrate and join the ranks of the Volunteer Ministers.

The graduation began with a warm welcome from the Public Affairs Director of the Scientology

Volunteer Ministers, Sandile Hlayisi who stated, "Education is the only cornerstone for change". The graduates were extremely proud to be officially graduating this life changing training.

One of the graduates is an Early Childhood Development (ECD) practitioner who spoke of how much this training changed her life. Once graduated, she said, "Since studying the Tools for Life I have completely changed. I used to be angry all the time – now I am so calm, everyone comes to me for advice. I use these tools every day".

She added, "These courses have given me motivation to do so much with my life! I have so much energy now. I volunteer my time at different aftercare centers, I assist the parents with their life situations and I help students with their homework. I saw how powerful it is".

Mr. Radebe from Tshwane University of Technology was blown away by the training. He went on to talk about what he wants to achieve with the students by saying, "I am very passionate about helping my students accomplish their goals in education. I know that they also deal with a host of other social issues and this is something I want to assist them with also."

These well acclaimed Empowerment Seminars have attracted people from all over Gauteng and other provinces. In stating the purpose for this, Sandile Hlayisi of the Scientology Volunteer Ministers said ". Education is crucial and we need to work very hard to take care of our youth, the least we can do is provide them with skills beyond their formal education to tackle the issues they face in life."
