

Hive Pro recognized as a Leading Provider of Fraud and Breach Prevention Solutions in 2022

MILPITAS, CA, UNITED STATES, January 25, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Enterprise Security Magazine has named Hive Pro as one of its Top 10 Fraud and Breach Prevention Solution Providers for 2022. The recognition is based on the company's innovative Threat Exposure Management Platform, HivePro Uni5, which empowers organizations to proactively contextualize, prioritize, and resolve potential threats to their assets through a single, unified platform.

The annual list, compiled by a panel of industry experts and Enterprise Security Magazine's editorial board, highlights the most promising technology companies in the field of enterprise security. HivePro Uni5 seamlessly integrates with other asset management, vulnerability management, and incident management solutions to streamline the vulnerability lifecycle management process. Its advanced threat intelligence capabilities enable users to quickly understand and mitigate potential risks to their assets.
