

EGW Utility Solutions Group Joins Reduct Pipeline Mapping Systems Growing Distribution Network

EGW Utility Solutions Group has partnered with Reduct NV to be a North American distributor of their gyro-based pipeline mapping solutions.

CARROLLTON, TX, UNITED STATES, January 25, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- EGW Utility Solutions Group (EGW), a national solutions provider for the natural gas utility industry, has announced it has come to an agreement with Reduct NV, a leading developer and manufacturer of gyro-based pipeline mapping solutions, to be a North American distributor of their products.

Reduct 3D Gyroscopic Pipeline Mapping Products

Effective immediately, the agreement entitles EGW the rights to distribute Reduct's unique utility mapping solutions for pipes 1¼" and larger in North America. Through EGW's regional sales network, Reduct will be able to significantly strengthen its presence in EGW's historically strong gas market along with other utilities.

Phil Wieggers

“Adding Reduct's unique gyro-mapping solutions to our portfolio of products falls directly in line with EGW's Core Purpose of Solving Problems, Making Connections, and Serving Others. Everyone here is very excited to be working with Reduct!”, said Phil Wieggers, CEO and Founder of EGW.

“EGW's network will provide us with the market penetration needed to fulfill the significant latent demand for gyro-mapping solutions in North America, and we are confident that EGW's reputation as a trusted solutions provider to local and nationwide utilities will help us leverage our position in the US.", said Otto Ballintijn, CEO of Reduct.
