NACD Fellows, who earn NACD Fellowship—The Gold Standard Director Credential®—stand within the highest echelon of those committed to excellence in the boardroom.

Mr. Schenker completed the requirements for this professional designation in December 2022.

As the highest standard of credentialing for directors and governance professionals, NACD Fellowship is a comprehensive and continuous program of study that empowers Fellows with the latest insights, intelligence, and leading boardroom practices—year after year. NACD Fellows Demonstrate a Commitment to the Highest Level of Leadership in the Boardroom.

Mr. Schenker shared, "I am extremely proud to have earned the NACD Board Leadership Fellow designation. This achievement allows me to join a distinguished and diverse group of individuals who make up the NACD Fellow community and who are committed to advancing the highest standards of boardroom excellence." He also added, "The resources, insights, and connections I've made through the NACD Fellowship will be key assets to the companies, clients, and industries I serve as an advisor, consultant, and director."

Jason Schenker is a Futurist, Economist, Speaker, and Author who prepares leaders for the future with speeches, books, courses, and research. Mr. Schenker has given over 1,000 keynote speeches and over 1,000 television interviews over the past two decades. Around 910,000 students have taken Mr. Schenker's 20 courses from LinkedIn Learning on business, leadership, economics, risk management, and finance. Mr. Schenker is the author of 36 books on emerging technologies, finance, and the economy. He is also Chairman of The Futurist Institute and an occasional columnist for Bloomberg Opinion.

As President of Prestige Economics, Bloomberg News has ranked Mr. Schenker the #1 forecaster in the world in 26 different categories since 2011, including for his forecasts of industrial metals prices, oil prices, the euro, and U.S. jobs. As Chairman of The Futurist Institute, Mr. Schenker trains analysts, consultants, executives, and national security professionals to become futurists.
