Building Customized Trip Plans from Scratch

Travel planning is a collaborative and continuous process, in which the customer participates, suggests, reviews, adjusts.

How it works

Little Travellers starts the process by getting to know clients, what they like and dislike, how they enjoy travelling, and what the ideal vacation would be like for them using a detailed questionnaire. The team of experts creates a prospective travel plan, clients review it and make suggestions, and Little Travellers finalizes everything. All that's left is for clients to discover their chosen destination through a detailed plan, custom itinerary, and Google lists. Their experts are available for support if there are any concerns during the trip.
