

Platon Graphics: Eco-Friendly Large Format Printing in Los Angeles with Exclusive Lambda Jet Technology

Platon Graphics, a Los Angeles based company specializing in large format printing, uses eco-friendly printing solutions using exclusive Lambda Jet technology.

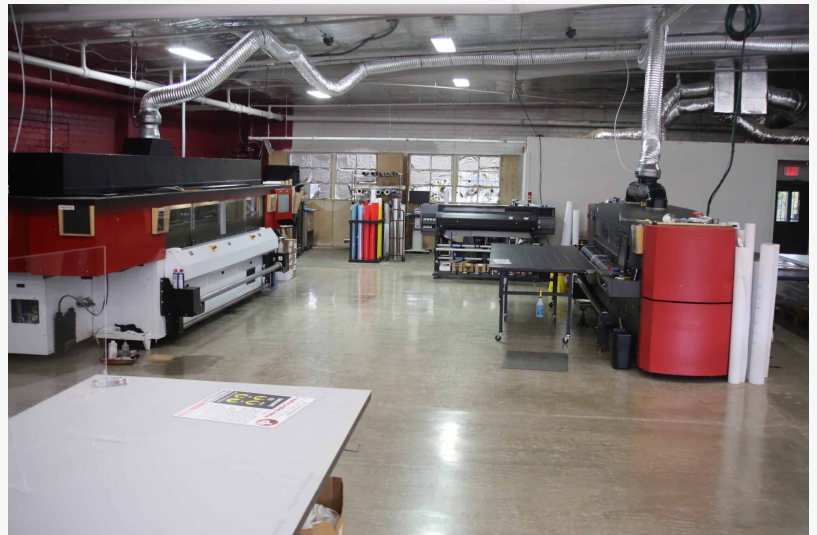

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, USA, February 2, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Platon Graphics, a leading provider of large format printing services, is proud to announce their use of eco-friendly printing solutions using exclusive Lambda Jet technology.

Platon's exclusive Lambda Jet technology offers a revolutionary solution for large format printing, providing high-resolution, photo-quality results while being environmentally friendly. Utilizing solvent-free inks, this cutting-edge technology allows for printing on a wide range of materials, including vinyl banners, decals, and paper, making it a versatile and cost-effective option for both indoor and outdoor applications.

Platon Graphics is committed to providing eco-friendly solutions to its customers. They are using only the most sustainable and non-toxic materials for their prints, as well as energy-efficient methods and recycling as much waste as possible.
