I thought about how appropriate that hymn [Lift Every Voice and Sing] is for today- the duty to march on and keep working toward Dr. King's dream." Washington State Rep. Marie Gluesenkamp Perez held from 8:30 am to 10:30 am at the Hilton Vancouver in Vancouver, WA.

Guests were musically entertained by the award-winning Take Six. "We were honored to have ten-time Grammy Award winning a capella group Take Six perform so wonderfully," says iUrban Teen founder Deena Pierott. For decades, the group has admirably crossed most musical genres, continuing to push the boundaries of creativity with every new release and ever-evolving live performances.

During the event, Pastor Joyce Smith sang "Lift Every Voice and Sing," also known as the Black National Anthem. US State Rep. Marie Gluesenkamp Perez reflected on the song's significance." I thought about how appropriate that hymn is for today- the duty to march on and keep working toward Dr. King's dream."

Dr. Jeff Snell Ed.D., Superintendent of Vancouver Public Schools, was honored with the Compass Award which is presented each year to an individual or organization for making admirable strides in equity and inclusion. In his current role as superintendent for Vancouver Public Schools, Dr. Snell ensures equitable education for all students, and supports successful passage and implementation of levies and bonds. His experience also includes teaching education leadership at the university level. Dr. Snell holds a B.S. in Mathematics Education from Boston University, an M.A. in Educational Leadership, and a Ph.D. in Education from Washington State University.

Pierott says the annual celebration funds the iUrban Teen Scholarship Fund has provided awards to over 58 students over the past six years, and this year's sold-out event was no exception. "It
