

New Intuition Center Dispels Preconceived Notions About Psychic Readings

To address this issue, The Intuition Center is offering an Inspired Spiritual Journey for new and existing clients.

OXFORD, MICHIGAN, UNITED STATES, January 28, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Intuition Center is pleased to announce it has an entirely new take on psychic readings that considers clients' wellness and spiritual journeys.

The Intuition Center is a virtual, holistic place where intuitive minds come together. It was founded on the belief that psychic readings themselves are not nearly enough to help clients achieve success because, as the organization believes, predictions are only a forecast of events and without guidance. As a result, it can be difficult to visualize the end result.

"Traditional psychic readings only suggest a possible outcome and leave the client wondering if, when, and how these predictions are going to play out," says founder of The Intuitive Center, Alicen Rae. "Instead, our Intuitive Consultants take a different approach, with each consultant having extensive education, including experience in both the corporate and psychic arenas. Their philosophy is that a person's destiny is a combination of predestined events and a person's free will."

According to the center, this isn't the only issue with traditional readings. For example, pay-per-minute sites are designed to get the client to spend as much money as possible, which can cause both advisors and clients to feel rushed - resulting in readings that feel incomplete. Another crucial issue is that advisors are rarely available "on demand" and may not fit into clients' busy schedules.

"The Intuition Center solves these problems by offering a free 15-minute Soul Path Consultation at the start of every membership subscription," Alicen states. "Our intuitive coaching teaches the client how to recognize signs and cues by learning to trust their own instincts. We believe that everyone has the power of intuition, but few are taught how to harness it."

"Not only that, but The Intuition Center allows clients to schedule live appointments at their convenience, as well as offering options for video delivery and more," Alicen continues. "Subscription packages allow clients to have a permanent spot with the advisor of their choosing, along with many other perks such as exclusive content, discounts on other services, and on-demand classes that can be viewed at the client's leisure."

To ensure for the best client experience, The Intuitive Center's professional Consultants are carefully chosen based on experience and diverse skill sets. Potential Consultants must have a substantial, verifiable "career psychic" background in order to apply and be able to demonstrate their abilities to a panel of senior Intuitive Consultants. Because of this process, clients need not click through hundreds of advisor profiles to find the one person that calls to them or settle on someone simply because they can't afford the advisor they truly want. Consultants are reliable, trusted advisors - rather than a sea of unfamiliar, ever-changing faces, many of which are just dipping their toes into the world of psychic readings for the first time.

"Our hand-picked Intuitive Consultants not only provide readings, but they also educate and empower clients how to use their own intuition to take control of their own lives," Alicen states. "Membership at our center includes readings, spiritual work, access to exclusive content, discounts, and community at affordable prices to suit everyone's needs."
