CoreStack Expands Leadership with Appointment of Raj Raghavan as Chief Human Resources Officer

CoreStack plays in a very niche space of multi-cloud governance and is on a tremendous journey to create customer success and value for its shareholders.”

Raj Raghavan, CHRO at CoreStack

This newly created role became critical as CoreStack's talent is seeing increased demand for its cloud governance solutions. This is due to enterprises looking for ways to optimize cloud spend and operational efficiency while ensuring security and compliance. This rapid scaling is reflected by CoreStack being ranked as the 78th fastest-growing company in North America on the 2022 Deloitte Technology Fast 500. To meet this growth need, Raghavan will lead CoreStack's HR function globally, crafting talent acquisition strategies and continuing to promote CoreStack's values-driven culture.

Raghavan's decorated leadership background also includes seven years at Amazon, where he served as HR Head (Asia Pacific & Middle East) and was responsible for international consumer business and global technology development centers in the region. He also served 10 years at GE, where he was HR Head for GE's global research and India Technology Centers. Raghavan holds a master's degree in personnel management and industrial relations from Madras School of Social Work and is a Global Fellow of Talent Management at The Wharton School.

"Raj was the natural choice to inspire and lead the most valuable element of CoreStack, our people," said Ezhilarasan (Ez) Natarajan, CoreStack Founder and CEO. "From IndiGo to Amazon to GE, he has dedicated his career to serving the talent of high-achieving, global companies. We see his future at CoreStack as an extension of this rare skill."

"It is my privilege to formally join CoreStack after admiring the company for some time," said Raghavan. "CoreStack plays in a very niche space of multi-cloud governance and is on a tremendous journey to create customer success and value for its shareholders. I have come to respect CoreStack's phenomenal team and talented employees who are obsessed with creating a top-notch technology company. As I join this awesome team, I look forward to contributing and supporting CoreStack as a preferred workplace for technologists, and I can't wait to improve the workplace experience of CoreStackers all over the world."
