"This team is talented and experienced, so I had to throw a couple of curveballs their way," says Marinho. "Not only did it make for a more interesting competition, it also pushed the teams to rise to the challenges and learn more about themselves and their teammates in the process.

At the end of the day, Coppola was able to choose which site he wanted to move forward with to promote and serve his business. The website was finalized and published on the web to start enhancing his online brand.

"It was a tremendous experience working with the folks at Develomark," says Coppola. "The emphasis on a fun and collaborative workplace is reflected in their ability to create, not one, but two beautiful websites. Clearly, they take the time to learn about their clients' explicit and implicit needs. Develomark also succeeded in developing a website that applies their expertise while also honoring the specific ideas that we had in mind.”
